Make an Impact
Everything we do impacts how our members and guests see us. As a Wellness Staff member it is important that you exhibit these basic guidelines at all times.
1. Staff will be empowered, authorized, and expected to serve members.
   I will use my best judgment and all the tools available to me to serve our members.
   Supervisors are here to support you.
2. Staff will be role-models of YMCA Character Values.
   I will exemplify the core values of caring, honesty, respect, and responsibility in all of my daily interactions, to staff and members alike.
3. Staff will treat all people with dignity according to the Golden Rule.
   I will treat others as I would like to be treated.
   I will not judge other members.
4. Staff will be responsive to members above all else.
   I will stop what I am doing to fully engage each member.
5. Staff will be unified in a common purpose and committed to teamwork.
   I will always give members more service and attention than they expect.
   We are all on the same team going the same direction.
6. Staff will be knowledgeable in all that the Y has to offer.
   I will never end a question with “I don’t know”.
   It’s always my job; it’s always in my area.

7. Staff will commit to ownership of their work environment.
   I will show pride in my “Y” by not walking past anything that is wrong and follow through to see each member’s concern to its conclusion. You see it – you own it.

8. Staff will come to work with their best attitude.
   I will give our members and fellow staff my best each time I come to work.

9. Staff will be committed to soliciting valuable member feedback.
   I will treat every incident of member feedback as an opportunity for the YMCA to improve, thanking members for giving us the opportunity.

10. Staff will be easily identifiable and professional.
    I will wear my name badge and staff shirt and look professional while I am at work.
